

DAVOSIM

Certified Simulator-based curriculum in basic laparoscopic surgery at the Davos GI course

Goal: The candidate will accomplish during 3.5 days a validated simulator-based training curriculum in basic laparoscopic surgical skills. Upon successful passing of a validated test at the end of the curriculum a certificate will be issued; the DAVOSIM Certificate.

Participants:	Participants of the basic course.
Requirements:	No previous simulator based training required.
Number of participants:	Maximal 20
Inscription:	Before start GI course, first-come-first-served.
Fee:	150.- CHF To be paid at inscription. No refund in case of cancellation or early termination of the curriculum.
Dates:	Sunday 5.4.20 afternoon – Wednesday 8.4.20 evening.
Training time:	9h in total, split into 2x 1.5h continuous training per day. Simulator training will take place during breaks and/or lectures of the Davos GI course. Simulator-based training will not interfere with practical exercises of the course.
Test:	1h
Certification:	Upon successful passing of the test.
CME:	10 points CME from the Swiss Surgical Society